

I object strongly to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary within days of the election. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Requiring stations to air a politically biased documentary is not in the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why it is necessary to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. The license renewal process should involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
